

MACEO IS ALIVE!

Reports That After All Maceo Has Not Been Killed.

REJOICING STOPPED IN HAVANA.

Gen. Lee Goes Back to Havana With a Heavy Heart.

HIS SYMPATHIES ARE WITH CUBA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 17.—Maceo is alive. The reports to that effect are absolutely reliable. The full particulars are not yet in. Even the Spaniards admit that Maceo is not dead, and their headquarters are gloomy today.

Key West, Fla., Dec. 17.—Passengers who arrived here last night from Havana report that Antonio Maceo is alive and well, and is in the province of Matanzas.

WITH A HEAVY HEART.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee Will Return to His Post at Havana.

Washington, Dec. 17.—Gen. Lee goes back to desolate Cuba with a sad and heavy heart. Those familiar with the character of the well known Virginian know that he is not at this particular time the least bit in love with his job.

Gen. Lee was long enough in Havana to thoroughly acquaint himself with the unhappy condition of affairs as they exist on the stricken island. He noted the heroic and self-sacrificing struggle of the brave band of patriots for a free government against a cruel and superior force.

SAUCY THREE FRIENDS.

Ineffectual Attempts of Federal Officials to Intercept Her.

Key West, Fla., Dec. 16.—The steamer Three Friends, which left Fernandina at 4 o'clock Monday morning with sixty men and a great cargo of arms and munitions for the Cuban insurgents, has apparently eluded not only the government officials and Spanish spies, but the United States cruisers Newark and Raleigh as well. The Newark and Raleigh left here hurriedly yesterday under orders to intercept the Three Friends, but their mission has apparently been unsuccessful, for the filibuster was sighted off this city at noon today, going southwest at a high rate of speed. Not only was the Three Friends plunging forward under a full head of steam, but every stitch of canvas was set, and she must have been making seventeen knots an hour. The filibuster was far out in the Gulf, but was plainly visible through marine glasses from the top of the city hall. Not another vessel was in sight.

The City of Key West arrived last night about 7 o'clock from Miami. Capt. Bravo states that he saw the Raleigh this morning at 7 o'clock to the northward of Foxey Rocks lighthouse heading in on the lands, apparently. She came in to find out about the City of Key West. She then turned and headed to the northward, going at a good speed. About noon, when off Alligator Light, Capt. Bravo saw a vessel about ten miles out in the gulf, which he took for the Newark, bound south. She was apparently being driven under full steam, as dense columns of smoke were issuing from her smokestack all the time after being in sight for about an hour. She either changed her course or went further out in the gulf.

From Capt. Bravo's statement it is evident the Three Friends has eluded the cruisers. It is supposed the filibuster will land her cargo on the coast of Pinar del Rio tonight.

The report that cannonading was heard near here this afternoon, supposed to be the Newark firing on the Three Friends, appears to have no foundation.

Ralph de Paine, the well-known newspaper correspondent, is said to be on board the Three Friends.

Could Not Catch the Three Friends.—Washington, Dec. 17.—The cruiser Newark returned to Key West yesterday forenoon. She reported to the navy department that she had been unable to overhail the filibuster "Three Friends."

NOT VALID.

A Senatorial Appointment by Governor Bradley After March 4.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The card of Gov. Bradley on the senatorial situation contains nothing new, remarked Senator Mitchell, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections. "The precedents he quotes," continued Senator Mitchell, "were fully discussed in the senate for two sessions in the Mantle case and after the fullest deliberation a majority decided that no vacancy existed within the meaning of the Constitution and, therefore, the governor could not appoint."

besides, no question was raised in the Pasco case. An extraordinary session of the Kentucky legislature possesses the same power to act as a regular session, and this view is entertained by a number of leading senators with whom I have talked on the subject. It is immaterial whether the extra session of the Kentucky legislature is held before or after the 4th of March, but it strikes me that the legislature should elect Senator Blackburn's successor before the 4th of March, so that the senator-elect may enter upon his term on the 4th of March.

John L. Johnson, colored, is on trial in the circuit court today for grand larceny. Johnson, it will be remembered, is charged with breaking into Mrs. Irene Cox's residence and stealing some carpets, cloaks, etc., assisted by Will Skelton, it is alleged. He is also charged with committing other burglaries, and the stolen goods were found at Evansville directed to his wife, packed away in a goods box in the depot.

M. H. Gallagher, for keeping a disorderly house, was found $25 and costs.

A motion was made by the defense to require the commonwealth to elect which charge it desired to try in the case against Will Hudson, colored, charged with stealing a woman's watch and ring and selling them.

CHARITY BALL.

A Large Crowd at the Palmer Last Night.

The Proceeds Will Give Many An Unfortunate a Happy Xmas.

A more elaborate and perfectly successful function than the charity ball given last night at the Palmer House for the benefit of the Geneva fund and suffering humanity, could not easily be imagined.

Socially as well as financially it was a thorough success, and there were seventy-five or eighty in attendance. The costumes were pretty and attractive, and everything conducted to the enjoyment of the evening.

The proceeds are quite gratifying.

MILITIA CALLED.

Report That There Is Martial Rule.

At Barlow City, Ballard County.—Could Not Be Verified.

A report was brought to the city this afternoon by a gentleman who passed near Barlow City this morning that the state militia had been called from Wickliffe to Barlow City to preserve order, and that there was a large and formidable crowd to attend the celebrated Shelby-Taylor trial, and bloodshed is expected.

The report could not be verified, however, and quite likely is untrue, so far as the militia is concerned, at least.

Plister, who represented the Tenth Kentucky district in the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh congresses, committed suicide at his boarding house early this morning. ### Wants to Be Annexed.

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 17.—The secret of Henry Cooper's mission to the United States is out. Mr. Cooper is the Hawaiian minister of foreign affairs. He formerly lived in San Diego and was a prominent member of the bar. He was here yesterday and is quoted as saying that he came to the United States to urge annexation, owing to the fears that the Hawaiian government has of Japan.

The situation in Hawaii, according to Judge Cooper, is that the Japanese far outnumber all other foreigners. The Americans are a handful in comparison.

Hawaii has already a treaty with Japan, and cannot exclude the Japanese, who are pouring into every business. They are losing the humble domestic that characterizes their countrymen on this coast, and through their great numbers and the prestige of the Japanese-China war, are beginning to chafe for the elective franchise. If they force Hawaii to give them the right to vote, then American ascendancy will be at an end forever.

Another Victim of Kerosene.

Monmouth, Ill., Dec. 16.—Mrs. D. M. Walker, aged 69 years, of Roseville, this county, died yesterday morning, another kerosene oil victim. While filling a lamp which stood near a lighted one Mrs. Walker filled the bowl to overflowing in her haste. She struck and broke the burning lamp, igniting the oil and her clothing. She made the usual fatal mistake of running outside, and her clothing being heavy her body was literally roasted.

MARRIAGES.

A Well Known Young Couple Married Today.

A Visiting Couple Came to Paducah Yesterday Afternoon to be Wedded.

Miss Cora Leigh Rudolph and Mr. Albert Culver were united in marriage at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. Felix G. Rudolph, on South Sixth street. Rev. M. E. Chappell performed the ceremony, after which the couple left for the residence of the groom's father, Mr. J. T. Culver, near Lovelaceville, where they will spend a week or two.

The bride is a young lady of great popularity and the groom is a salesman for Mr. J. J. Guthrie. They will probably reside here after January 1.

Mr. R. E. Hutcheson and Miss Sylvia Quinn, the former of Mansfield and the latter of River, Ohio, arrived from St. Louis yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, where the young lady had been visiting. After supper at the Palmer they went to the residence of Rev. M. E. Chappell, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, on South Sixth street, and were married. Today they left for home, having in store an agreeable surprise for their friends, who know nothing about their marriage.

Constable Anderson Miller went out to Y. D. Rouse's wagon yard, near La Belle park, this morning to sell a horse belonging to John Johnson, a son of the notorious Dave Johnson, on a debt to one of the Greif boys.

Johnson had made many threats of killing the man who attempted to sell his property, and the constable had a relay of officers to help him out. Johnson was there, but offered no resistance and agreeably surprised the constable by outbidding the others and getting back his own horse.

SENSATION ON SOUTH FIFTH.

A Very Disgraceful Affair, It True—No Warrants Yet Issued.

THE GRAND JURY MAY INVESTIGATE.

There was a sensation of prodigious proportions on South Fifth street last night at the Second Presbyterian church during and after services. The reports of the disturbance vary, but that there was a terrible tumult is undeniably true.

A well known citizen of the South Side, according to rumor, claims to have gone home and found no supper. His wife was at the church, and it is understood claims that supper was left on the table for her husband. But whether or not there was supper, there was an uproar at the church.

One report was that the late husband struck his wife with a stick in the presence of the congregation, but this is untrue from more reliable accounts. The frightened woman, either fainted or had hysterics, and her husband used some very improper and indecent language, if what some of those present say be true.

So far as is known this is the first trouble that ever occurred between the husband and wife, and it is very deplorable, particularly on account of their age and standing in the community.

They have children who are grown and married, and are no doubt mortified over it, and while, if reports are true, the man himself is entitled to little consideration, his name is suppressed for the press it on account of others.

No warrant has yet been issued, and it is not yet known whether any will be or not. It is said the grand jury will investigate, and maybe find a bill for disturbing public worship.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.

A little tot who possesses more than the average brightness of children of her age, was at the piano the other day watching her aunt execute a lively quickstep. She followed as best she could the rapid glances of nimble fingers over the responsive keys, and presently inspired with some hesitancy, "Say, Bella!"

"What?" was the reply.

"Is it not as many fingers as you?"

asked the little miss in perplexity.

She imagined from appearances that her aunt had fingers all over the keyboard.

"Do you keep the 'Moon' here?"

asked a veritable looking yoke of a local newspaper today.

"Yes, that's about all I do with it," was the reply, as the news devoted glances to the big bundle of unsold copies.

Mr. John Little, the well known spoke magazine, was wandering about last night in quest of someone who could translate a dainty missive he received through the mail addressed and written in a feminine hand.

It is composed entirely in French, at least he said it looked like that to him, although it may be most any old thing, so far as he is able to tell.

He is very eager to learn the content of the mysterious communication, despite the horrible suspicion that it may prove a snare and a delusion of a practical joke.

A well known gentleman who employed for ten or twelve years of his life recently gave up his business and again accepted a position with the railroad company here. The first run he made he mastered his finger, and when he reached home was very well satisfied to remain there. The employer came around to get him yesterday, but he shook his head and replied "ait," that he had enough and if he went out again it would in all probability be his head that got mashed next. He is of the opinion that this portion of his anatomy is far too valuable to be sacrificed in such a cause.

It is evident that thousands of people in the United States are eager to go further than to sympathize with Cuba and the oppressed nation that is fighting for freedom. Hundreds of people in Paducah can be found today who signify their willingness, in enthusiastic terms, to shed their blood in the Cuban cause if necessary, and there is no reason to believe that they are not in earnest.

Tonight a mass meeting will be held at the city hall, and the demonstration promises to be something unusual. A few hundred men from each street will go down and crush out every vestige of Spanish tyranny in a jiffy, and if indications confirm, something similar is not at all improbable at this stage of the game.

The quartet of witnesses who left the city this morning before daylight for Harlow City, Ballard county, to testify, if they survive long enough, in the Shelby-Taylor case, went with an overwhelming apprehension of never gazing upon their native hearth again. County Attorney Houser left all his valuables with friends, and carried a walking cane bearing his name and address, to be used in case his remains should perchance be found some where in the wild and woody woods. Attorney Jesse Gilbert held family prayers just before his momentous departure, and wore a grim smile of resignation and a steel breastplate inscribed with his name, by which he can be identified if anything besides the plate and the smile is afterwards found. Mr.
George Harris donned a complete new outfit of attire, but would not wear a white shirt and collar, fearing that these might be deemed a distinction of homicide in that locality, and result in his untimely end.

Mr. W. A. Wickliffe went prepared for any emergency, but just being off of the grand jury he is willing to brace most any kind of danger. The unhappy four told all their friends good-bye, and although half of this was done in a joking mood, seriously speaking trouble is feared when the case comes up today.

The intensely bitter feeling that has long prevailed between the two factions is likely, especially on such an occasion, to result in an outbreak and bloodshed, and until the trial is over there will be little repose of crowd, at least.

The following story is told of an old anti-bellum darkey of the forties, and the man who first told it is noknown:

"Uncle Peter" the old darkey was called, and he is an olden time preacher who lives in Princeton, Ky.

"Uncle Peter" is somewhat renowned from the fact that he got his wife,

"Chiddy," without asking for her, which has been a source of considerable encouragement to the unhappy bachelors of Princeton. Peter was recently asked to relate his experience, and finally consented to do so to a crowd of drummers, one of whom retold it to the writer.

"Yo' see, gemmen," he began, "I tak my 'sex' an' preach a 'pow'ful sermon. Chiddy she 'pear'ed suddenly 'sow' 'er fat night 'er—"

"I knowed de Lawd wuz arter her.
De nex' night Chiddy she cam a little closen, an' de nex' night she got 'em out de mo'nal's bench. I say, 'rat out me, an' I will gib yo' res'."

Chiddy cried 'm' cum up."

"Den de bap'tism cum off. Chiddy wuz a white dress, an' de w'en she draps down in de watah so sweet an' innocent lak, 'Chiddy,' sez I, 'hol' yo' self stiff, so's I ken gib yo' outen de watah."

"But 'fo' de Lawd, gemmen, my foot it slip, an' Chiddy cayn't foteh hefself up. 'Ise gwine murry de man what gits me out,' 'Ise sho' gwine murry de man what gits me out,' she say an' Ise quick den foh to foteh her."

"Arter bap'tizah," 'Isees aroun' an' peeks f'ro' de dooh, 'fo' Chiddy's # room, and dar she set dar wif a nice new gins 'an' dress in.

"Chiddy," I axed, is yo' gwine to keep yo' wif? She ges' smiled, an' presen'tly she sez, 'Yass I'm Petah, Ise gwine to marry de one what foteh me out."

"An' dat's how I cum to gib Chiddy without axing."

Peter and Chiddy have lived many years together, and she does not seem ashamed of the fact that Peter did not have to ask for her.

Short Talks With Young Readers
About Literary Non de Phines Talent
Incongruity

The pen names, or literary pseudonyms, of current writers for the newspapers and periodicals are doubtless familiar to the young readers of the SPS.

It is a fact that a large proportion of the best reading matter appears under fictitious signatures, and the very excellence of the productions creates a desire upon the part of the reader to form a "reading acquaintance" with the writers, and to know their real names.

Just why writers of such rare ability should desire to conceal their identity is not always clear. Modesty is a part of real merit, and I attribute a great part of these non de plumes to the innate modesty of the writers. Not a few of these names, however, were adopted by the writers through sheer timidity in early life, when they themselves were not proud of their productions. Others have adopted pen names through fancy; while some people, believing that "there is something in a name," have written high sounding names at the conclusion of some very low grade matter.

"Guth" is a signature that is familiar to the readers of the Cincinnati "Enquirer" the world over. I would advise my young readers, and the older ones too, to read every line signed by this name in the future.

"Guth" is the pen name of Geo.
Alfred Townsend, one of the best and brightest newspaper correspondents in this or any other country. He has done much to make the Cincinnati "Enquirer" one of the leading dailies of the world.

I saw Mr. Townsend once, sitting in the press gallery of the United States senate and he looks every-inch a veritable nonpareil. His vast experience, added to his natural brilliancy, gives him thorough command of a new item, and he serves it exactly to the liking of a nation of readers.

Some of the very best reading matter now being sent out from Washington city is being published in the Lombard "Courier-Journal" and the Lombard "Times" over the pen name of "Savoyard." This is the pen name of Mr. Eugene Newman, and was adopted by him after reading much of the Savoyards of Switzerland. Mr. Newman's taste for historical reading is highly developed, and I believe him one of the best posted men in the mediaeval history of England and Continental Europe to be found on this side of the waters. He delights to mingle his "specials," which gives to them a richness and an individuality all his own. Mr. Newman is a native of western Kentucky, having passed his boyhood in Edmonson county, I believe.

"M. Quad" is the peculiar name signed by Mr. Chas. M. Lewis to his humorous writings that appear in the Detroit "Free Press," and which are frequently sent out in the form of "date-matter" to many other publications. Mr. Lewis is a brilliant and versatile writer, and his great good humor brings him a princely income. Being a practical newspaper man, Mr. Lewis has picked both his pen name and this great fame right out of the "cases."
